tomorrow

Friday, September 28th has been designated as School Spirit Day. On that day your child should wear red and white clothing to show our school colors. Blue jeans can be worn that day, but shorts must still be uniform shorts. Also, please know that if there is ever a no uniform day that your child does not want to participate in, he/she can always just wear the regular school uniform. Friday will be an early dismissal after the parade. Buses will run after the parade. We will walk down to Main Street about 12:30 and find a place to sit along the parade route. The Kindergarteners must sit together and leave together with me after the parade. We will then walk back to the classroom, where they then can be dismissed. If you are picking your child up from school, you can either come to the classroom and take them or I will send them to the Church parking lot to be picked up. Bus riders will leave as normal. Haven is also open after the parade for those students who are walking there.

KJAM Reading Rocks

Next Wednesday, we will have a special visitor from KJAM Rocks of Madison, SD. They will be joining us to read a story to our class and then donating the book to our classroom.

Letter of the Week

Next week, I will be doing some testing with the students during our Reading time. Since we are at the end of our first Unit this is a great place to do the testing. We will not have a letter of the week this next week due to the testing.

Homecoming to-

Our Prayer for the Month: Glory Be

Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.
