Letter of the Week

Next week, the letter of the week will be the letter Ii again.

November Book Orders

Today you will find three different book orders for the month of November from Scholastic in your child's folder. If you wish to place an order please fill out the slip (s) and return them to school along with your payment by next Wednesday, November 14th. Also, please remember that you can place your Scholastic Book Club order online again this month if you'd prefer.

And each time a parent orders online our classroom receives a certificate for a FREE book pick and new this year when you order online you, as the parent, get a reward coupon for a $5 FREE book pick on your next order! If you received one of these certificates for the September order you can redeem it this month if you'd like! Note: For our Christmas party, I ask each child to bring a book as a wrapped present for our gift exchange. If you choose to order books for the Christmas gift please do not spend over $5.00. I will also do a December book order so you can wait until then if you like.
